Customer Reviews

This is a fun book for people curious about options in religions, as well as a reality check for followers of any of the 99 belief systems in this book that are certain that they have the only "true" religion. As mentioned in this book, people spend more time choosing a car, TV or purse than they spend choosing which god(s) to worship. Anyone who inherited a religion from their parents or by accident of geography could benefit from a review of their choice of religion. In this day and age, you are not forced to choose only among off the shelf religions and god(s) created millennia ago, there are also many more recent designer religions that might better meet your preferred belief systems. Since all religions that believe in supernatural god(s) are unprovable and based on "faith," you may certainly choose the "truth" that suits your preferences, or you may choose no religion. Your decisions include:* Do you want to believe in one God, multiple gods, spirits (inanimate, animal, vegetable or mineral), cosmic forces, or no gods?* What kind of afterlife promises do you want to believe? Do you prefer a heaven and hell, a purgatory, reincarnation, a return to the great cosmic energy, or just expect you will return to the nothingness whence you came?* How much praying do you want to do, once a week, daily, several times a day? Do you want to pray on your knees or do you like more active praying like wild dancing, yoga or Tai Chi? Do you want to sing, chant or speak in tongues?* Do you wish an intermediary between you and your god(s) like a priest, minister, or imam, or do you wish to commune with your god(s)/nature/universe directly? Maybe you would prefer to meditate or not pray at all?
