The 1946 And 1953 Yale University Excavations In Trinidad: Vol. # 92 (Yale University Publications In Anthropology)

Synopsis

In 1946 and 1953, Irving â œBenâ • Rouse led archaeological excavations at prehistoric to protohistoric sites on the island of Trinidad. This book presents an analysis of these excavationsâ until now unpublishedâ relating the results of Rouseâ s work to subsequent research at these sites by other investigators and to current knowledge of Trinidadâ s cultural sequence and Amerindian ethnohistory. The first detailed study of indigenous cultural development in Trinidad covering its entire pre-Columbian through the historical Amerindian sequence, this work is a significant addition to the data on Caribbean archaeology.
